(i) would, for any other reason, be disqualified by law from serving as a trustee or director of a company; or

(j) is in a position where there is a conflict of interest between the interests of the member as member of the Commission and the business interest of that member.

(5) A member of the Commission, other than an ex-officio member, shall not, by reason only of his or her appointment as a member of the Commission, be deemed to be an employee in the public service.

(6) The Minister shall publish, in the Gazette, the names of all members of the Commission as first constituted, and every subsequent change in the membership.

7.—(1) A member of the Commission, other than an ex-officio member, shall hold office for a term of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for one further term of three years. Tenure and vacancies

(2) The office of a member of the Commission, other than an ex-officio member, shall become vacant—

(a) on the expiry of the term of office of the member;

(b) if the member resigns from office in accordance with subsection (3);

(c) upon the member being convicted of an offence against any written law and being sentenced to a term of imprisonment without the option of paying a fine;

(d) if a situation arises that if the member had not been appointed, the member would have been disqualified from appointment;

(e) if the member is absent, without valid excuse, from three consecutive meetings of the Commission of which the member has had notice;

(f) upon the member becoming mentally or physically ill, where a suitably qualified medical practitioner certifies that the member is no longer, by reason of the illness, capable of performing duties of the office of member of the Commission;

(g) upon the member being removed from a position of trust by a court of law;

(h) upon the member being removed from office in accordance with subsection (4); or

(i) upon the death of the member.

(3) A member of the Commission, other than an ex-officio member, may at any time resign from office by giving written notice to the Minister.

(4) The Minister may remove any member of the Commission, except an ex-officio member, on any of the following grounds—

(a) misconduct that brings the Commission into disrepute;

(b) incompetence in the execution of the functions of the office of member;

(c) failure to declare a conflict of interest relating to any matter under consideration by the Commission;

(d) disclosure or publication to any other person or entity, other than in the course of duty, of any confidential information of the Commission obtained in the course of duty or otherwise; or

(e) being compromised to the extent that his or her ability to impartially and effectively exercise the duties of his or her office is seriously in question.

(5) A vacancy in the membership of the Commission shall be filled, within sixty days of the occurrence of the vacancy, by the appointment of a new member by the Minister in accordance with section 6.

(6) A person appointed to fill a vacancy under subsection (5) shall serve the remainder of the term of office, but no person shall be appointed to fill a vacancy of the remainder of a term of office where the remainder of the term is less than six months.

(7) The period served by a person appointed under subsection (5) shall not be regarded as a term, for the purposes of subsection (1), unless the period is two years or more.

Meetings
of the Commission

8.—(1) The Commission shall meet for the transaction of its business at least once in every three months at a place and a time as the Chairperson shall determine after consulting the Chief Executive Officer.

(2) The Chairperson shall convene ordinary meetings of the Commission by giving the members not less than fourteen days' written notice.

(3) The Chairperson may, on his own motion and at any time, convene an extraordinary meeting of the Commission upon giving the members not less than three days' written notice.

(4) The Chairperson shall convene an extraordinary meeting within seven days of receipt of a request, in writing, signed by not less than four members specifying the purpose for which the meeting is to be convened.

(5) A quorum at every meeting of the Commission shall be constituted by five members.

(6) The Chairperson or, in his or her absence, the Vice-Chairperson shall preside over all meetings of the Commission, and in the absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, the members present and forming a quorum shall elect one of their number to preside over the meeting.

(7) A decision of the Commission on any matter shall be determined by a majority vote of the members present and voting, and where there is an equality of votes, the Chairperson or, in the absence of the Chairperson, the Vice-Chairperson, or other member presiding, shall have a casting vote in addition to that person's deliberative vote.

(8) The Commission may, where necessary taking into account the nature of the matter to be deliberated, invite any person to attend its meeting or any of its committee meetings and participate in the deliberations or to make a presentation or to be asked questions on any matter, but the person so invited shall not be entitled to vote.

(9) The Chief Executive Officer shall serve as secretary at meetings of the Commission and shall record and keep minutes of each meeting of the Commission and the minutes shall be confirmed at the subsequent meeting.

(10) The Commission may make rules to regulate its proceedings and business or the proceedings and business of any of its committees.

(11) The Chief Executive Officer, or any other member of staff of the Commission as the Chief Executive Officer may designate, may attend a meeting of the Commission and of any of its committees and may address the meeting, but shall not vote on any matter.

(12) Where, at any meeting, the deliberations of the Commission or any of its committees concern the Chief Executive Officer, or any member of staff of the Commission designated to attend the meeting, the Commission, or the committee, may exclude the Chief Executive Officer or the member of staff from the meeting.

9.—(1) The Commission may, for the better exercise of its functions and powers, establish committees to perform any of its functions and carry out such other responsibilities as the Commission may specify.

Committees
of the Commission

(2) The Commission shall appoint a chairperson for each committee from amongst the members appointed under section 6 (1) (a).

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall serve as secretary at meetings of each committee of the Commission or may, with the approval of the Chairperson, delegate a senior member of staff to serve as secretary at meetings of a committee.

(4) Every committee shall act in accordance with directions given to it, in writing, by the Commission.

10. A member of the Commission, or a committee of the Commission, other than an ex-officio member, shall attend meetings

Personal attendance of meetings

of the Commission or a committee of the Commission in person, and where a member is unable to attend any meeting, the member may request that his or her apology for failure to attend the meeting be recorded.

Disclosure of interest

11.—(1) A member of the Commission or a committee of the Commission and a person invited to attend a meeting of the Commission or any of its committees who has a direct or indirect interest in any matter before the Commission or any of its committees, shall disclose the interest as soon as is practicable before or soon after the commencement of the meeting and shall not take part in any consideration or discussion of, or vote on, any question on such matter at that meeting or any subsequent meeting.

(2) A disclosure of interest made under subsection (1) shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which it is made.

(3) Where a person fails to disclose interest in accordance with subsection (1) and the Commission or committee of the Commission makes a decision which benefits that person, a close relative, professional or business partner of that person, the decision shall, to the extent that it benefits that person, the close relative, professional or business partner, be null and void.

(4) For purposes of this section, “close relative” means spouse, brother, sister, parent, child, child of the spouse, sibling of a spouse and the spouse of any of these relations.

Allowances and expenses

12.—(1) A member of the Commission or a member of a committee of the Commission shall be paid such allowance, from the funds of the Commission, as the Minister shall determine on recommendation of the Government department responsible for human resource management and development.

(2) The Commission may reimburse any reasonable expenses incurred in connexion with the business of the Commission by a member of the Commission, a member of a committee of the Commission or a person invited to attend a meeting pursuant to section 8(8).

PART III—ADMINISTRATION

Secretariat

13. There shall be a secretariat of the Commission which shall consist of a Chief Executive Officer and other members of staff of the Commission appointed in accordance with this Act.

Appointment of the Chief Executive Officer

14.—(1) The Commission shall appoint a Chief Executive Officer, who shall be responsible for the administrative control of, and supervision over, the work of the Commission.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall be appointed through a competitive process and on such terms and conditions as the Commission shall determine after consulting the Government department responsible for human resource management and development.

(3) A person shall not be appointed as Chief Executive Officer unless the person—

(d) the effective administration and implementation of this Act; and

(e) the performance of any other duties and functions as may be delegated to him or her by the Commission.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall devote his or her full time to the duties of his or her office and shall provide the Commission with all the information, data, statistics, documents and other materials pertinent to the efficient performance by the Commission of its functions and responsibilities under this Act or any other written law.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer may, with the approval of the Commission, delegate any power or function assigned to him or her under this Act to any member of staff of the Commission.

Tenure and removal of the Chief Executive Officer

16.—(1) The Chief Executive Officer shall hold office for a term of five years and shall be eligible for re-appointment for a further term of five years.

(2) The Commission may terminate the appointment of a Chief Executive Officer where the Chief Executive Officer—

(a) is incompetent in the execution of the functions of the office;

(b) commits a misconduct that brings the office of Chief Executive Officer or the Commission into disrepute;

(c) is not able to perform the functions of his or her office by reason of mental or physical infirmity;

(d) is declared or adjudged bankrupt by a competent court of law;

(e) is convicted of an offence and sentenced to a term of imprisonment without the option of paying a fine;

(f) fails to declare a conflict of interest relating to any matter under consideration by his or her office or the Commission; or

(g) is found guilty of a misconduct punishable by dismissal under his or her employment contract.

(3) The Commission shall not remove a Chief Executive Officer from office unless the Chief Executive Officer is given an opportunity to be heard.

Other members of staff
of the Commission

17.—(1) The Commission shall employ management, administrative, professional, technical and such other staff, subordinate to the Chief Executive Officer, as the Commission considers necessary for the effective discharge of its duties and functions.

(2) The Commission may, by directions in writing, delegate to the Chief Executive Officer, the appointment, discipline and dismissal of members of staff below the level of director, and the Chief Executive Officer shall report to the Commission, at its next meeting, every appointment, disciplinary decision or dismissal made pursuant to this subsection.

(3) The members of staff of the Commission referred to in subsection (1) shall be appointed on such terms and conditions as the Commission shall determine after consulting the Government department responsible for human resource management and development.

(4) Section 16 shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to dismissal of other members of staff employed under this section.

PART IV—FUNDS AND PROPERTY OF THE COMMISSION

18.—(1) The funds and property of the Commission shall consist of—

(a) such sums as may, from time to time, be payable to the Commission from moneys appropriated by Parliament;

(b) such sums of money as may accrue to, or be received by, the Commission by way of fees, charges, penalties, tobacco levies, dues or rates imposed under this Act; and

(c) such sums of money, or other property, real or personal, as may be acquired, purchased or received by, or transferred to, the Commission whether by way of donations, devise, bequest, purchase or otherwise.

(2) The funds and property of the Commission shall exclusively be under the control of the Commission and shall be utilized solely for the purposes of this Act in accordance with the written directions of the Commission and for no other purpose.

(3) The Commission shall, at all times, comply with the provisions of the Public Audit Act, the Public Finance Management Act and the Public Procurement and Disposal of Assets Act.

PART V—REGISTRATION, LICENSING AND DUTIES OF GROWERS

21.—(1) A person who intends to grow tobacco shall apply for registration, in the prescribed form, to the Commission.

Registration of growers

(2) The Commission shall, within thirty days of receipt of the application under subsection (1), where it is satisfied that the applicant has—

(a) met the prescribed requirements, register the applicant and issue a certificate of registration in the prescribed form; or

(b) not met the prescribed requirements, reject the application and give reasons for the decision.

(3) A buyer, tobacco floor operator, commercial grader, transporter, and any entity affiliated to the buyer, tobacco floor operator, commercial grader or transporter shall not be registered to grow tobacco.

(4) The Commission shall keep and maintain a register, in the prescribed form, of growers for each growing season.

(5) A buyer or a representative of a growers' association may, upon written request, inspect the register at the Commission's office during working hours.

Registration numbers and production
quotas

22.—(1) The Commission shall, upon registering a grower—

(a) allot the grower one registration number for each type of tobacco to be grown by the grower; and

(b) allocate a production quota to the grower.

(2) A grower who registers more than one estate for growing tobacco shall be allotted a registration number in respect of each estate.

(3) A grower shall not transfer to another person the registration number which has been allotted to him or her.

Licensing of growers

23.—(1) A person registered as a grower shall submit an application for an annual licence, in the prescribed form, to the Commission.

(2) The Commission shall, within thirty days of receipt of the application under subsection (1), where it is satisfied that the applicant has—

(a) met the prescribed requirements, issue a licence in the prescribed form; or

(b) not met the prescribed requirements, reject the application and give reasons for the decision.

(3) A grower may be licensed to grow tobacco either on contract farming or non-contract farming arrangement.

(4) A grower with more than one estate may be licensed on either or both auction and contract marketing systems.

(5) The Commission shall license growers no later than 31st October of each year.

(6) Where an application for a licence is received by the Commission after the specified date in subsection (5), the applicant shall pay a prescribed penalty for late licence application to the Commission.

(7) Subsection (1) shall not apply to a person who grows tobacco for research purposes.

24.—(1) A person shall not have in his or her possession, for any purpose, a certificate of registration which is not his or her own, except when he or she is selling tobacco as an agent of a grower.

109.—(1) A person shall not bring a court action or other proceeding personally against any member of the Commission, a member of a committee of the Commission or a member of staff of the Commission in respect of any act or omission done in good faith in the course of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Protection
from liability

(2) Where, in any proceeding, a question arises on whether or not an act or omission was done in good faith in the course of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the burden of proving that the act or omission was not done in good faith in the course of carrying out the provisions of this Act shall be on the person alleging that it was not so done.

Power of entry and production
of documents

110.—(1) The Commission or any person, authorized in writing by the Commission, may enter upon or into any land, building, vehicle, aircraft or vessel where tobacco is grown, purchased, stored or transported for the purpose of ascertaining that the provisions of this Act or the conditions of any licence or authority issued under this Act are being complied with.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1), the Commission or any authorized person may call upon the owner, occupier or manager of the land, building, vehicle, aircraft or vessel to—

(a) produce books or records that relate to such land, building, vehicle, aircraft or vessel as are used in connexion with the subject matter of this Act;

(b) produce books or records that will enable the Commission to check the accuracy of any return or application made or required under this Act;

(c) permit samples of tobacco to be taken to ascertain that this Act and the conditions of any licence or authority are being complied with; or

(d) generally, provide any information required by the Commission in pursuance of the Commission's powers and functions under this Act.

(3) A person who—

(a) obstructs or refuses entry to the persons referred to in subsection (1); or

(b) fails, neglects or refuses to produce books or records or to permit samples to be taken or to provide information under subsection (2), commits an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of K5,000,000 and imprisonment for twelve months.

Confidentiality of returns

111.—(1) The returns or information in the returns furnished to the Commission by a licensee under this Act shall not be disclosed to any unauthorized person.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine of K1,000,000 and to imprisonment for six months.

112.—(1) A certificate of registration, licence or permit issued under this Act shall not be transferable.

Registration certificate, licence or permit not transferable

(2) Notwithstanding (1), a grower’s certificate of registration and registration number may be transferable upon—

- (a) the death of a grower;
- (b) a grower’s physical incapacitation;
- (c) sale of an estate; or
- (d) sublease of an estate:

Provided that the Commission shall require written evidence of death, physical incapacitation, sale or sublease and change of land ownership transactions.

113.—(1) A licence issued under this Act shall be valid for a period of twelve months from the date of issuance and may be renewed on such terms as the Commission may determine.

Validity of licences

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)—

(a) a manufacturer’s licence shall be valid for a period of five years from the date of issuance and may be renewed on such terms as the Commission may determine; and

(b) a tobacco processor’s licence shall be valid for three years from the date of issuance and may be renewed on such terms as the Commission may determine.

114.—(1) The Commission may cancel certificate of registration, suspend, vary or revoke a licence or permit issued under the Act.

Power to cancel certificate; suspend, vary or revoke licence or permit

(2) A decision under subsection (1) shall be notified to the licensee, in writing, giving reasons for its suspension, variation or revocation.

(3) Where a registration certificate, licence or permit issued under this Act is revoked, the holder of the certificate, licence or permit or, in the case of death of the holder, a member of the immediate family of the holder, shall, within thirty days of receipt of the revocation notice, surrender the certificate, licence or permit to the Commission.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) shall be liable to an administrative penalty of K5,000,000 for the first offence and K10,000,000 for the subsequent offence.

115. A person aggrieved by a decision or determination of the Minister may, within fourteen days from the date on which the decision was communicated to him or her, apply to the High Court for a review of the decision of the Minister.

Right of aggrieved party to review or appeal the decision of the Minister

Display of licence

116.—(1) A licensee shall display a licence at a visible place or produce it when so required by the Commission as the case may be.

of tobacco and nicotine products

119.—(1) A manufacturer, importer, distributor or retailer may advertise tobacco and nicotine products in accordance with the conditions prescribed by the Commission.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to a fine of K20,000,000 and to imprisonment for five years.

Cess, levies and charges

120. The Minister may, by order published in the Gazette, prescribe cess, levies and charges at an expressed rate per stated unit of net weight to be paid, levied and collected in respect of—

(a) tobacco sold at a tobacco floor;

(b) tobacco exported from Malaŵi; and

(c) tobacco imported into Malaŵi.

Regulatory orders and sanctions

121.—(1) Notwithstanding any criminal sanction imposed under this Act, the Commission may, if it is satisfied that—

(a) a person has contravened or is likely to contravene any provision of this Act; or

(b) a holder of a registration certificate, licence or permit has contravened or is likely to contravene a term or condition of the registration certificate, licence or permit, issue a regulatory order to the person or holder of the registration certificate, licence or permit.

- (2) A regulatory order shall be in writing and shall state—
- (a) particulars of the person to whom it is addressed;
 - (b) particulars of the contravention or potential contravention;
 - (c) the action required of the person to whom the order is addressed; and
 - (d) the period within which the order should be complied with.
- (3) A regulatory order may include one or more of the following—
- (a) a written warning;
 - (b) directing the person to do a specified act, or refrain from doing a specified act, in order to—
 - (i) remedy the effects of the contravention;
 - (ii) compensate the person who has suffered loss because of the contravention; or
 - (iii) ensure that the person does not commit further contraventions;
 - (c) requiring the person to pay a monetary penalty not exceeding K20,000,000;
 - (d) suspending a licence;
 - (e) revoking a licence; and
 - (f) cancelling a registration certificate.

(4) A regulatory order shall be discharged upon the Commission being satisfied that a person to whom it is addressed has fully complied with the contents of the order.

(5) Where a person to whom the regulatory order is addressed fails to comply with the order within the period stated in the order, the Commission may—

(a) seize, remove or detain any material used in the commission of the act proscribed in the order and the seized material may be released upon the person to whom the order is addressed complying with the order and paying all costs and expenses incurred by the Commission in enforcing the order; and

(b) where the person against whom the order is issued is a holder of a registration certificate or licence or permit under this Act, revoke the certificate, licence or permit, as the case may be.

(6) Where, pursuant to this section, the Commission orders a person to pay compensation to an aggrieved person, or imposes a monetary penalty, and the person fails to pay the compensation or monetary penalty for a period exceeding thirty days from the date the penalty is imposed or order of compensation is made, the Commission may recover the compensation or penalty as a civil debt due to the aggrieved person or the Commission, as the case may be.

(7) A person who fails to comply with a regulatory order made under this Act, other than an order to pay compensation or a monetary penalty, commits an offence and shall, upon conviction, be liable to—

(a) in the case of a natural person, a fine of K5,000,000 and imprisonment for twelve months; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate, a fine of K10,000,000.

Regulations

122.—(1) The Minister may make Regulations for implementing the provisions of this Act and prescribing all matters which are necessary or contingent to be prescribed for the better carrying out or giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the regulations may make provision for—

(a) forms of registers, notifications, licences, certificates, permits and returns required under this Act;

(b) procedure and requirements for registration and licensing of various stakeholders;

(c) procedure and methods for uprooting tobacco stalks;

(d) manner and methods of labelling, marking or sealing of tobacco bales;

(e) manner of advertising tobacco and nicotine products;

(f) fees and charges payable under this Act; and

(g) anything required to be prescribed under this Act.

Cap. 1:01

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 21(e) of the General Interpretation Act, the Regulations made under this Act, may create offences in respect of any contraventions to the Regulations and for any such contravention may impose a fine not exceeding the maximum fine imposable under this Act and imprisonment for up to five years.

Repeals and savings

No. 10 of 2019

123.—(1) The Tobacco Industry Act, 2019 is hereby repealed.

(2) Any subsidiary legislation made under the Act repealed by subsection (1) and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act—

(a) shall remain in force, unless in conflict with this Act, and shall be deemed to be subsidiary legislation under this Act; and

(b) may be replaced, amended, or repealed by subsidiary legislation made under this Act.

(3) Anything done in accordance with this Act repealed by subsection (1) prior to the commencement of this Act and which may be done in accordance with the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed to have been done in accordance with this Act.

(4) Any person who immediately before the commencement of this Act is a person registered and licensed under this Act repealed by subsection (1) shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to be registered and licensed under this Act.

124.—(1) Property, assets, funds liabilities, obligations, agreements and other arrangements existing at the commencement of this Act and vested in, acquired, incurred or entered into by or on behalf of the Tobacco Commission shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have vested in or to have been acquired, incurred or entered into by or on behalf of the Commission and shall become enforceable by or against the Commission to the same extent as they were enforceable by or against the Tobacco Commission.

Transfer of assets and liabilities

(2) Where the transfer of any property transferred to or vested in the Commission under subsection (1) is required by any written law to be registered, the Commission shall, within one year from the commencement of this Act or within a period that the written law may prescribe, apply to the appropriate registering authority for the registration of the transfer and thereupon the registering authority shall, at no cost to the Commission or any person by way of registration fees, stamp or other duties—

(a) make entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to the transfer;

(b) where appropriate, issue to the Commission a certificate of title or other statutory evidence of ownership of the property or make the certificates or in the appropriate register as may be necessary; and

(c) make any necessary endorsement on the deeds or other documents as may be presented on the registering authority relating to the title, right or obligation concerned.

125.—(1) A licence issued or permission granted in accordance with the repealed Act shall, unless otherwise expressly provided for in this Act or in any other written law, continue to be in force and be deemed to have been issued or granted by the Commission under this Act.

Transitional provisions

(2) Any approval for equipment given under the repealed Act shall continue to be in force and be deemed to have been made under this Act.

(3) Members of the Commission, as constituted immediately before the coming into force of this Act, shall continue to hold office as members until the appointment of new members of the Commission in accordance with this Act.

(4) The Commission shall, within two years from the commencement of this Act, transfer all licences and certificates issued or granted under this repealed Act, as if the licences had been granted under this Act and the Commission may extend the two year period by a period not exceeding six months after the expiry of the two year period.

Legal proceedings

126. Any legal proceedings commenced immediately before the coming into force of this Act by or against the Tobacco Commission, shall be deemed to have been commenced by or against the Commission established under this Act.

Transfer of employees

127. Unless the Commission otherwise determines, all persons who, immediately before the commencement of this Act, were employed by the Tobacco Commission established under the repealed Act, shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have been transferred to the employment of the Commission established under this Act, on terms and conditions of service not less favourable than their previous terms and conditions of service and, for the purpose of determining their rights thereunder, their services shall be regarded as being continuous from the time they were employed, by the Tobacco Commission established under the repealed Act.
